THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART
WELCOMES NOTED THAI SCHOLAR

The Cleveland Museum of Art is pleased to announce that the noted Thai scholar, Prince Subhadradis Diskul, will deliver a lecture entitled "Classical Art in Thailand" in the Museum's Recital Hall on Sunday afternoon, December 3 at 3:00 p.m.. Prince Subhadradis, a well known and respected specialist in Thai art, has published numerous books on Thai art and is responsible for the catalogue notes on "The Sculpture of Thailand", the widely acclaimed loan exhibition which opens in Cleveland on January 10.

The lecture will be illustrated by colored slides and is free to the public.
